FAMILY FUN DAY-DINOSAURS AT THE MUSEUM

Christ the King Anglican College held their inaugural Family Fun Day last Saturday. Thirty-one adults and forty-six children ventured to the Melbourne Museum to see the Dinosaur Walk exhibition.

There were many excited faces with people gasping and exclaiming as they explored the many different exhibits on show. Giant fossils leaned over us, pterodactyls flew high above us and many hands-on activities kept us busy and interested.

Some families were even able to stay and watch "The Night at the Museum 2" at the IMAX theatre.

It was a great excursion and many weary, but happy faces were seen to leave the building.

Here are some student comments:

I liked the Museum and the sand pit where you had to find the bones. I also liked the touch screen and the Museum Shop. Jordan

I loved the dinosaur bones because now I know that they are really big!
Hannah

I loved it when you had to brush the bones. Ellisse

A HELPING HAND-YEAR 8S SHOW YEAR 1-2 HOW TO MAKE PRINTS

The Year 8s gave a helping hand to Ms Schneider's year 1-2 class recently as the younger ones made dinosaur prints.

WHO IS THE FAIREST OF THEM ALL?

Preps have been studying Fairy Stories this term. Here is a story which they wrote as a class:

Once upon a time, there lived a girl and a boy. Their names were Snow White and Eric.

One day they were visiting each other and decided to go for a walk. On the walk they saw a beautiful castle. In the castle was a BIG BAD Wolf. The wolf was hiding because he ate the King!

The wolf had a big nose and he could smell Snow White and Eric coming. So the wolf thought of a plan. . .

He dressed up as the King. He wore a cloak, a gold crown with lots of jewels and a diamond ring. Then he went to sit on the throne. The wolf was too big and fat so the throne broke.

Snow White and Eric decided to go into the castle to see the King. They did not know that the BIG BAD wolf was looking for them.

A witch called 'Sleeping Beauty' came on her broomstick and flew into an open window. Once inside, Sleeping Beauty made a path of cookies and left a poison apple at the end so she could catch Snow White. She wanted to catch Snow White because she was the fairest of them all. But the wolf, with his big nose, smelt the cookies and started to eat them.

The cookies made his mouth dry so he decided to eat the apple—the poisonous apple. The wolf died and was put into a glass coffin. Sleeping Beauty (who was the witch) was so angry that she smashed her mirror and she melted.

Snow White and Eric got married, moved into the castle and lived happily ever after.

FORGING AHEAD IN PRC

Congratulations to the following students who have been reading voraciously for the Premier's Reading Challenge. Congratulations in particular to Ethan Smith (Prep) with 100 books and to Pierre Taylor (Year 6) who has read a staggering 66 books at the year 5-6 level.

A reminder also, that the reading for the MS Read-a-thon began on the 1st June. Now that it's winter, it's a good time to settle inside with a good book in your spare time.

WINTER SPORTS

On Tuesday 26th May, 10 boys from Years 9 and 10 travelled to Shepparton to compete in a badminton competition accompanied by Mr Scandrett.

Although we did not emerge victorious we had a fun day. A big thank you to Miss Doyle and Mr Scandrett for making the day possible.
